IMPLEMENTATION OF THE SELECTION OF MANAGEMENT TRAINE
ACCEPTANCE BY PT GENTING PLANTATIONS NUSANTARA WITH ALUMNI OF THE FACULTY OF AGRICULTURE, UNIVERSITY OF MEDAN AREA

Tuesday, January 30, 2019, the Faculty of Agriculture, University of Medan Area and PT Genting Plantations Nusantara conducted a Collaboration Training Activity in the Genting Plantations Nusantara Employee Selection Process with Trainee Management Position,

PT Genting Plantations Nusantara is a plantation company based in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia and has a garden in Kalimantan, also a growing Palm Oil Business Group, which was attended by the Dean of the Faculty of Agriculture, Dr. Ir. Syahbuddin Hasibuan M.Si, Deputy Dean for Student Affairs Ir. Gustami Harahap MP, Head of Public Relations of UMA who is also a lecturer in the faculty of agriculture Ir. Asmah Indrawati MP, from PT. Genting Plantation Nusantara was present directly by the selection team, namely Pieter Tan, Tumpal Simamora, Manatas Sihombing, and Lenny Sinaga from the Human Resources Department (Human Resources Department) and all agriculture faculty students in all tertiary institutions in North Sumatra who attended the training.

UMA Chancellor Prof. Dadan Ramdan in his short speech said, the opportunity provided by PT. Genting Plantation Nusantara, a plantation company based in Kuala Lumpur Malaysia and has a garden in Kalimantan, is a very rare opportunity, so I hope that the selection trainees make the most of this opportunity. I pray that everyone will be accepted to work at PT. Genting Plantation Nusantara, "the chancellor said.

With this partnership underway, we hope that UMA's agriculture faculty graduates will get jobs soon. So the waiting time for students who have just completed their education is getting shorter. That is, we not only educate them to be agricultural graduates, but also help them find jobs.
